THE BOY.

A's the green apple

B is the ball that is lost on the ground. U is O the O cigar-makes when

V's his vina leading the We his

WALE

ette mak ding bim Lokin' spots."

Joe went straight over to Tabal Tabpaie. D is the dog with ___ sean on it's tait. E is him took wry. Fix the fish-day and Fourth of July, to in the games that make happy his days It is the hooky from school that he plays. I athe indians he agoing nee that make happy his days. day. I tashe nor knife he are ading away. Kis the kim in the sty scare discern ed. Lis the realings for investigation of the control the gate. I's his top paint with gate. I's his top paint with the gate. I's his top paint with the gate his fate. Q is the querrors who bis content in the run he makes to his content. Sinthe salient ng skales, and balls and sled. The his tope and he toys painted red. U is the Sinch's words,

"O, thander' there's no use o' me buckin' agin two seeh bloated Diver-as you chaps," said Joe, sitting down desponden'ty.

TORIT CLUKE'S BARGAIN.

Muckledrumlie — some Scotchman must have christened it — was no place for a man whose eye-teeth were nurnit. The people, as a class, were of the wide-awake type: and if, now and then, one among them was caught napping, his condition, our waking, was yery apt to suggest that Solomon's invery apt to suggest that Solomon's in-junction, "Give not sleep to tame eyes per slumber to thine eyelds," was specially designed for the meridian of "I've teen elimbin' over that bit o'

Muckledromife.

They were sharp traders, the Muckle drumbians. Indeed, Joe Jawry used to say a couple of the say a couple of the say a couple of days afterto say a couple of the microsid sit down wards, to a quiet bargain and rise up each a fin little warped by his own experience. He was an old "forty-niner," who had returned from California with a snug

The laugh that Joe gave rang un-pleasantly in Nathan's ears.

'Good'!' cried Jue, between his gulfaws: why, of you sarch ov'ry atem Ilt') pile, intending to spend it and the rest of his days percefully in his native town meaning that the two as nearly gullaws: 'why, of you sarch ov'ry atom as possible, should run out together of that hillsafe with a mekeryscope of forty thousan' he sepower you'd never drundle before he was largained out of find as much goold as 'd make a guat's all he had—the bulk of it going, there earning and share allke, to Nathan Such and Who Tubal Tulkins, the two "smartest" than by the erab stump?" gasped Na-ahned to take root lu.

One day as Nathan Sinch chanced to place! Leflowed Nathan, in a rage.

o skirt ng this sterile slope, his eye.

'I said I thought of mak a Tobit questions, which was neither few nor far between. Joe plead d pressing for him to invoke the blessing of business and took a hasty leave.

"What can that chup be up to?" said

"What can that chup be up to?" said

head. He was failf inclined to scram-ble up and inspect for himself the snot which had engaged doe's attention; but the ascent was steep, the day hot, and the means; and if we wilfully refuse or Bright and early next day Joe paid a as the Arabs call it originated in the sit to Nathan.

Chelera—or Mordech e, a dog selent, as the Arabs call it—originated in the low rice plantations of Central Asia, as

'Mornin', Joe," returned the other, over-rowding in buts, a warm, riffly, a little miffed over his late air, and the excess ve filthiness throat with an embarrassed at. He One million victims fell in the wasn't commonly at less for words; but alone. No cure was known, an on his mind something working little resistance offered. In 18 capproach, which is a sense of the most resistance inquisitiveness fairly boiling over," out which swept over the country, the lir with it at once and don't stand there of bituminous coal which were kindle hangin' back like a bound boy at a like a rampart around every univaled.

bursting with impatience.

"I've cone," said Joe, nerving himyour dead." In 1818-9 it returned

The people whom it attacked were better to side o' his'n; an' of I buy it I'll be willin' to s'cure the loan by a mor'gidge on drainage and the rules of health.

you, "said Nathan—not ei the s'eurity was ever so good. I'm dreadful skrimp to eat moderately such food as agrees o' mon'y jest now. These is tryin times, you know, an wassis comin', I'm and to put his trust in the Lord.

stump for. He's struck goods, that a St. Paul, Minn

THE HICKMAN COURIER

The Oldest Newspaper in Western Kentucky.

HICKMAN, FULTON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1883. VOL. XVIII 6-NO. 51.

there was goold enough in that side-hid to pay the untional debt. They do say it's most found in jest such occasive kins's, where an altogether similar dis-logue was gons over-only there J. a said it was Nat Sinch be suspected of -Sau Francisco Chronicle.

ESTABLISHED 1859.

"Tols is what I call blamed mean" said Joe, with a withering look at Nathan, who had hardly finished fidding Tolsit the time of day—"it's what I call blamed mean, so it is, snearin' in this way to get ahead of a neighber!"

"I meaquare man, Tole Cluke," he continued, "an' don't want to take no advantage of nobody. Will you the athousand dollars for that 'em fill' side 'crost the guich yonder, several by a mor gidge on the primises? You do not continued the primises? You want to the Bailt the season. To the primise the primise that the primise that

"I'll go a couple o' hundred better! shouted Tubal Tulkins, bu tling in our of breath, just in time to eatch Nathan

"The billiside you mean," ceplied bundred collars richer without a cent of money passing a mode of producing wealth which Adam Smith and the somethin'."

Joe, mecon ernelly, "Yes; you see I the somethin'." "Yes: you see I thought I might find ing wealth which Adam Smith and too ing wealth which Adam Smith and too ing wealth which Adam Smith and too ing wealth which are forgotten to mention of them have forgotten to mention of his fellow-townsmen may have been a Nathan admitted, sheep sidy, that such a result would not have astonished

What was you lookin' at, then, up nach in the towa.

Alout the poorest man in Meckle-drumlie was Tobit Clube. His sole possession was a patch of ground as poor as himself. Part of it was a stony to a himself. Part of it was a stony to a himself. Part of it was a stony to a himself. Part of it was a stony to a himself. Part of it was a stony to a himself. Part of it was a stony to a himself. The most graceless than tremoning and training a nativalist, you see."

"I'm a b t of a nat ralist, you see."

"I'm a b t of a nat ralist, you see."

"I'm a b t of a nat ralist, you see."

"I'm a b t of a nat ralist, you see."

"I'm a b t of a nat ralist, you see."

"I'm a b t of a nat ralist, you see."

"I'm a b t of a nat ralist, you see."

"I'm a b t of a nat ralist, you see."

"I'm a b t of a nat ralist, you see."

"What can that chap be up to?" said These words should be the countersign Nothen, with a perplexed sire the of the in every hattle against threatened pis-Nathon fat.

"Confound it!" he muttered, "'tan't notich", nohow." And casting a wishful look up at the crab-tree sump, he sighed regretifily and waddled on.

"Chelera—or Mordech'e, a dog's death, bright sherearly heavy visit in Nathan.

"Mornin', Mr. Such," he said, typins fever did among the typins fever did among the typins fever did among the typins in buts, a warm fever did among the be affied carriedly, Jos sawty benuned and cleared h's tered Europe with trumphant for del'
III Joe began, but stuck fast, every close, unclean house, the death every close, unclean house, the death carts rumbling through the street, t self with an effort, "to ask if you'd Eng and and to this country, and agained me a thousand dollars—I mean on in 1854 and 1856. With each time th epidemic relaxed in severity, and be Nathan Sinch opened his eyes. What came more amenable to scient he treat fer for a themsand dellars? Nathan's curios ty rese to white heat.

"Fact is," continued J.c., in a mys-

in' to s'cure the loan by a mor'gidge on the primeses."

"Lend you a thousan' dollars to put in Tobe Cluke's hidside!—well, that's a good un!—ha! ha! ha!—an' take a mar'gidge on it for the money!—better yet!—ho! ho! ho! Not much, ef Nat Sinch knows hisself. Why, I'd like to see the gasted fool as'd give a thousand cents for that stone-heap?"

"H—sh!" cautioned Joe, "don't speak so lond. I don't want the thing to git out. There's lots o' folks as d be ready to snap it up at wunst ef they only know'd what I know. There's Tni al Tulkins, for one, I've my doubts he half mistrusts a leady."

"Well, I'm main sorry I can't obleege" drainage and the rules of health. "We have every reason to take comfort from these facts. There can be no doubt that the poison of cholera is virulent and highly contagious. But the disease, when it affacks a temporate person of cleanly habits, is ordinarily brought under control of medicine. It very rarely does attack such a person. In anticipation of its threatened approach, it is hardly worth while for any reader to study its symptoms, or to concern himself with any of the thousand cures offered in the papers. But let were some the facts. There can be no doubt that the poison of cholera is virulent and highly contagious. But the disease, when it affacks a temporate very rarely does attack such a person. In anticipation of its threatened approach, it is hardly worth while for any reader to study its symptoms, or to concern himself with any of the thousand cures offered in the papers. But let were study its symptoms or to concern himself with any of the thousand cures offered in the papers. But let were study its symptoms or to concern himself with any of the thousand cures offered in the poison of cholera is virulent and highly contagious. But the disease, when it affacks a temporate very rarely does attack such a person. In anticipation of its threatened approach, it is hardly worth while for any reader to study its symptoms, or to concern himself with any of the thousand cures offered "Well, I'm main sorry I can't oblogge all his influence to induce every indi-

Joe pleaded hard, but Nat Sinch was a man that could say "no." and at ck almost certainly escape; and if it does not come, the family will enjoy the rare If the cholera comes, that house will and locking a good deal enopfallen.

"A a!" eried Nathan, as soon as Joe sound bodies.— Fouth's Companion. was out of hearing—"I know what so o'clock. It's plain enough now what he was familin' round the old erab the Pacific Congregational Church, of the was familin' round the old erab the Pacific Congregational Church, of the Pacific Congregation of the Pacific Congregation

-In the State of Mississippi only ef 1,236 women said their ages were thirty they were just thirty.—Chicago Herald.

-Ostrich chicks are hatching out at the California ostrich farm at the rate of one a day. When they come out being ready to map the thing ep.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

In the course of half-an-hour Joe trudged across to Tobit Cluke's cabin, which Nathan Sinch had entered not a of the various penal offences in Prusnute before.

Tals is what I call blamed mean."

(6,000, was 988,732. Of these 186,222.

ed by London, even with all its mod-

There are now about 17,000 denof archic al teeth made in the United of the matter is I must have $10,000 a yearly, yet only one-third of the orde avail themse'ves of this blessing. Scientific California.

WIT AND WISDOM.

A little singular that passengers are was still in the street.

No," he said, "that's all over."

Well, I hope you came out all okesman of the ship - N. O. Hem. How the Style Spread -

Went to the cuploised.
To get her poor daughter a gown:
She made it un a stiern.
With a sack for a pattern.
And the style spead all over the town.

One day as Nathan Sinch chanced to be skirting his sterile slope, his eye, always on the bookout, spied Joe daw-try half way up, usinging with one hand to the stomp of a stunied craptice, which had died of sheer want, and poking among the stones with the other.

When Jee found that Nathan's eyes

Whith a sack for a pattern.

And the style speed all over the town.—She was a sweetly inexper enced young housekeeper, as one may gather from her remark when some one significant to be stones with the other.

This is a trage.

And the style speed all over the town.—She was a sweetly inexper enced young housekeeper, as one may gather from her remark when some one significant to be stones with the try likins, an I guess Old Tobe's done in the stones. "Yes," she explied, "if they are in season we'd better have some."—Checago Tribune.

world, but dewnright and honest hard world, but dewnright and honest hard world. Your brains may ferment and A Fresh Romance. effervesce like a yeast pot, but unless you can settle down to steady toll you

If has know'd good boys ter drag along an finally amount tersothin'. Do wast liek I cher got was from a man what dua't want ter hit me. Now I so mighty kere al 'boat crowdin' a man. When a pusson, says dat he want ter hit me was select with an illness which kept last her watch. When a pusson, says dat he want ter hit me waste.

s ands must take a front seat. Once upon a time it appears there were his man beings upon Charles Island who planted orange groves and corn, and imported cattle, asses and buil terriers. What bappened to the human beings no one seems to know, but, failing other more time to be the ghost of per bank of the strenger has been table by the saw what seemed to be the ghost of per bank of the prospect and continue of control of the strenger has been to the strenger has been to blow on the fillers.

"I expect nothing else!" exclaimed the disconsolate husband, "but may be story for her. As she sat at her window story for her. As she sat at her window at the disconsolate husband, "but may be story for her. As she sat at her window. Thursday, near noon, looking out on the strenger has been to blow on the fillers.

"I expect nothing else!" exclaimed to the built little and so mad to pine apple, of each on cunce; valerian to the built little and so mad to pine apple, of each on cunce; valerian to the built little and so mad to pine apple, of each on cunce; valerian to the built little and so mad to pine apple, of each on cunce; valerian to two onness land aum (tineture the disconsolate husband, "but may be story for her. As she sat at her window.

Thursday, near noon, looking out on the strenger he laid a hand on his shoulder and brusquely in the disconsolate husband, "but may be for the disconsolate husband, "but may be for the disconsolate husband to the will listen to reason."

Going over to the strenger he laid a hand on his shoulder and brusquely in the disconsolate husband to the strenger he laid a hand on his shoulder and brusquely in the disconsolate husband, "but may be for the disconsolate husband to be will itsten to reason."

Going over to the strenger he laid a hand on his shoulder and brusquely in the disconsolat hosp table island and are up the anders, just by way of showing that e usual order of things might somenes be reversed. Of the fate of the adrupeds, however, there can be no oult. They multiplied exceedingly, and are now in unrestricted posse-sich freedom and the island. But the attle are vicious and aggressive, the ages are wild beasts, proving upon a vec and donkeying, and the donces are fierce and fleet. What a condwork is here presented for a vice-ersa arch pelago! If there are poultry ney are no doubt rapacious birds of rev, robbing fox-roosts and carrying if fox-chickens. The cat, overwheined will bull terriers, has become subrranean, purblin!, insect vorous, and forth. For the present, however, it soffices to point o t the novelty of the sport to be en yed. It is not every-where that the sportsman can shoot are the exception. - London Telegraph grows out of the middle of his back.

A Wall Street Tumble.

Among the thousand of outsiders who dabbied in Wall street ten y are ago was one... I don't want to give his real name, but we will call him Richards. He op rated through our house, that is, the house in which I was employed as book-keeper, and, as he seen became a daily visitor, I got to know him so well that we often had a familiar chat. I sometimes met him in the even ng besides, and our acquaintance rip n d into intimacy. At first his lack in the street was preity good, and one day, when he had made a thou and or so in an hour. he asked me to dine with him that even-ing at Deimorico's. Most of our tak was about the stee', and when a bodle of wine had made it pretty free. I venthabitant. The value of the eggs consist that protty high or low, I con about $10 per head to each inhabitant areas at $240,000,000, or $40,-000,000 for poultry and eggs together, or about $10 per head to each inhabitant areas at get on with less. The girls are areas at get on with less. The girls are areas at get on with less. The girls are areas at get on with less. The girls are areas at get on with less. and. The number of eggs consumed is claimed to be substituted in the wind of the watering places with their mother, and in the wind repeated to each inhabitant, which would allow one egg to each person even, other day.

The geographical limits of some of the world's great clies seem to hear but latter relation to the number of their inhabitant, which was considered in the wind repeated by the world's great clies seem to hear but latter relation to the number of their inhabitant.

sabitants. New York now includes really call your own?"

Well, altogether, I suppose I could rake up $80, 0). Now, want I want to know is how I could use that so as to res: Philadelphia, with a population and its down the fire street busines, but what is 8 0.000, has the surprising geometric and the street busines, but what am i to do? I must have $10.00 a year, and the second dead of the second and the second dead, I can not find any other states that will need to be second as the second dead, I can not find any other

d by London, even with all lis moda sld tons of what were not long o outlying and separate communities.

N. Y. Tribunc.

There are now about 17,000 denMany families live on less than 8,000. is in the Unit d States, and they pack of the beeth of the American people at a ton of pure gold and five times.

"I have tried over and over to make out a ten of pure gold and live times in am unit of less precious metals (t.n., lor, platfaum, etc.) annually. Now, see metals are worth $1,000,000, and will take only about $50 years to bury I the coin in the United States in the rave-vards (another feature in favor of comation). There are about 4,000,000 in y means are limited, and the amount families at least made in the United of the matter is I must have $10,000 and the must have $10,000 and the matter is $1,000 and the matt

Year."

I lost sight of Richards soon after by going to another house where I had a better offer, but I heard from time to time that his luck was not so g od. It must have be a five years before I met Please to remember that in the common of life short progress and hon- it weight are better than long progress and short weight.—N. F. H. raid.

After a few words I asked him if he

"All right?" Yes, if you call coming out without a dollar all right." ill-link, and asked him if he had got into any busin s. No. he said, it was lato business: but his friends were tr young housekeeper, at one may gather from her remark when some one sugplace in the custom onse. I asked him what the sala y was, and he sa d perch like a possum from his bush, and was hurrylag off, pretending not to have sen Nalhan, when the latter called out.

"Hello, neighbor!—what was you perkin into up there?"

"N-nothin, much," stammered Joe, hanging his licul and looking finared. And that was all that could be got from him in spite of Nathan shoch's questions, which was neither few nor are lettween. Joe pleaded pressin, and no percentage of the percentage of the time are lettween. Joe pleaded pressin, and man last done the utmost he can have the sale y was, and his sale the understood it was $1,000, with a chance of something better after a while. It would have been crued to remain any our real value, after all. You may wear a placard saying you are soilid gold, but men hardly take a second squint at you before they discover that you are pinchiack. The farmer may shingle and clap-board his old barn, but the moment you get on the inside you see that it is the old larm novertheless.—N. I. Heralt.

—It is not genius that tells on the lare a week, which was the obed.

—It is not genius that tells on the lare and the presence of something better after a while.

—It is not genius that tells on the lare and the understood it was $1,000, with the norther and the understood it was $1,000, with the had said they you may wear a placard saying you are soilid gold, but men hardly take a second squint at you before they discover that you are placard saying you are soilid gold, but men hardly take a second squint at you are placard saying you are soilid gold, but was $10,000, but while we were lared approached to lare anything and clap-board his only yourse are soilid gold, but men hardly take a second squint at you are placard saying you are soiled out.

—It is not genius that tells on the lare and the understood it was $1,000, which have been crued to remain him of what he had said they you may be for they discover that you are soiled out.

—It is not genius that tells on the charter and the sain and the said they you may be for they discover that you are you can settle down to steady toil you are worth no more to the community than a soap bubble, which bursts so soon that it is hardly we then one's while to stop to lock at and admire it. A good blacksmith is werth a round dozen of geniuses who were long hair and By reine collars at dworder why the world dozen't adore them. —Exchang:

A Fresh Remance.

—Flantation Philosophy.—De edveation of a man is his silver, but his common sanse is his gold. Fortune sometimes comes ter de one what lend the stop don't all ers turn out ter be de bes' man. I has know'd good boys ter drag along an finally amount ter sothin'. De wust loy an it has been an was formed to Arkansas, of Louisville, Ky., was formerly a photographer. In the loops of bettering his fortunes he went to Arkansas on a prospecting tour. That was in the early part of 1832. It will be remembered that last year a series of most destructive floods occurred in Arkansas. C ties and villages and with a silver but his common sanse is his gold. Fortune sometimes comes ter de one what lend the state of the common sunse is his gold. Fortune sometimes comes ter de one what lend the state of the properties of the carried in Arkansas. C ties and villages and with scores of others, Mr. Evans awoke to tind the hoose e cancel out out or n shes. Never mind, though, it would save us lust right! The bear had not yet started when one of the boys who insites on some grantation for the boys who insites on some grantation of the boys who insites on some grantation for the boys who insites on some grantation for the boys who insites on some grantation for the boys who insites on some grantation husband hobbling along the street on crutches and looking eagerly around for the house to which he had been directed. Had a thunderbolt struck her she could not have been more aston-ished, and, almost fainting, she sank into a chair, deathly white and trembling. Her little daughter, fright-ened at her mother's upna ural appear-ance, ran to her side, and in a weak and meet her father. The child went to the window, and looking out, saw her father approaching, but the cru class deceived her, and, ret rining to her mother, she said the man was not ber papa. By this time, though, be had reached the door, and in anothreached the door, and in another moment was in the arms of his wife. The meeting was an a lectionate one Husband and wife were alike over over at the discovery of the cruei mistake under which t ey had be n laboring, and the children were almost insu with happiness .- Louisville (Ky.) Caur

Individual Time.

A fet man with a baid head and a little man with a hooked nose sat next to lly around him he count one another in one of the smokers' seats it an open horse-car which was jogging down a Boston street. Though evidently strangers, they were conversing plessantly. As the car nearest the head of Milk street, the held-headed man chancel to 12bk upward toward the historic church-tower which loomed in front. With an exclamation of surin front. With an exclamation of surprise he turned away from its contemplation, hastily pulled out a handsome-losing gold water from his fob, regarded it a moment, and, a tiling hack it is acat with an air of mingled the sound of footsteps in her bed room, and the next moment the light of a recess of his waistgoat was not digni-fied with a chain, had a broken second and looking narrowly at the dial in h s hand, and repeating this dual inspec-tion for a scend time as if to make perfectly sure that he read them both right, he replied to the fat man's ques-therefore it is lupps i le to state whether the hald-headed gentleman was or pot - loston Here d

Always His Luck.

He boarded the St. Cla'r River boat we children, and the family were not yet easted when he began:

"New Sarah, I'll he fifty dollars of what he had kent t'n remembrance of what he had kent. Tais is the story of the ring.

On the return of the husband the wife related to him the adventure and showed him the note: but he has never at the turglat. — Union of the husband the wife related to him the adventure and showed him to note: but he has never at live ch liven, and the family were no gaspad.

"Just as I expected just exactly:

man lo ked up.

"Just so exactly—I suspected as much. You'll utter a yell as you'go over and kick up all the bobbery you can, I presume. "And my wife will faint away and every young un how! lil ean Injun! I'll give you a dollar to go over on the "No. sir-not for a thons a l." " Haven't you any fe lings for a man who has had steamboats and tish and rivers and lakes and flats pounded into h m for three months?"

eyes on my family when you go down lungs. Opium has a training to angfor the last time! I myr had any other ment Brig a's discase, discusse and kind of luck, and I mg ing down to the saloon and get d unk preparatory to a biler explosion! Good-bye, old feller: the and valer and the makes the arserves me right, and I don't complain."

Indianapolis downa!

When he was helped ashere at the Flats he was weak in the knees and limber in his spirit. Gathering his fam

Youths'

LOF

epartment.

MINESS.

If your thought is and died,

You a state
Of the loveumes of worth:
And this bounder it to eart;

Wall enders.

-Man Long, in St. Nicholas.

TOMMUS LESSON. Daisy was a boutiful, great black some bow sie was very disagreeable and wou do I give her dear little boy but one piece. This per him in a very bad humor, and he resolve I to go away be a rry she's so cross to her little toy when s ie can't find him for ever, 'n' ever, 'n' ever so long!". Filled with this great idea, Tommy alls in the bros or said Tommy, "Got

y they'll ie fwogs, ck says they've get

I'd I ke to do someairaid, of something ng up and ran with with pretty Jumbo antil he came to the mouth of an old well, in the South Lot.

couldn't have a good in the matter? Could is Tommy himself was cre back in his seat with an air of mingled relief and satisfaction, remarked to his companies. "Old South clock's 'off dark hantern flooded her face so near qui e so al."

"Off 'I'' orded the man with the hocket we with an argumentative larger than bound to stand on the defensive. "You say it's off, do you defensive. "You say it's off, do you will may be air, nay be. Let us see."

Well, may be sir, may be Let us see."

The sound of footsteps in her bed room, and the next moment the light of a dark hantern flooded her face so near that so could almost feel the heat and hear the suppressed breathing of the intruder. Her husband was from hear the suppressed breathing of the intruder. Her husband was from defensive. "You say it's off, do you may be a suppressed breathing of the party of some of mind did not, however, for sake well, may be sir, nay be. Let us see."

defensive. "You say it's off, do you! ence of mind did not, however, lorsal well, may be, sir, may be. Let us see." ber. It doubtless requires a great amount of resignation and fortitude in a woman to listen to; without sere infied with a chain, had a broken second hand, a discolored dial, a tarnished case and the appropriate a of and a general air of shabb ness. But the little man bent over it with an air of respect of confidence. Carefully scanning the face of the church clock. I we consider a growly at the dial in her said looking arrowly at the said l The light was withdrawn from he face and she heard the rusting of silks, the picking of locks, and occasionally a low waisper of surprise or slica epointmen. Then there was silence for a full and so full of fun! box wansper of surprise or suspense to the last man sques tioning gaze, in which there was the barest suspicion of contempt:

"Clock's all right, sir, my witch here venies it."

"Oh, your witch agrees with it, sir, with a bit of a that rising into east or his fat cheeks. "Well, now, it's a li the singular, but my watch, sir, makes the cost, sir." The bald-caded man had pronounced the words "my watch, sir," The bald-caded man had pronounced the words "my watch, sir," The bald-caded man had pronounced the words "my watch, sir," The bald-caded man had pronounced the words "my watch, sir," The bald-caded man had pronounced the words "my watch, sir," The bald-caded man had pronounced the words "my watch, sir," The bald-caded man had pronounced the words "my watch is meaned and she felt trait was meaned to suspense! Te light was a moment of suspense to suspense to the plant for the star the least was a moment of suspense to the light, but remained calm and motionless in its series and tall mills ears, as if to warn im motion as a war to suspense to the light, but remained the bed, but it was not of the was a light of a but it was not to be a sau y k then. But he was surely a sub the sum the sau and I'll be veten wised lids of limb up on her soft for y back and y o me when he ded, lifteen cot the paper from her when her eve Run? You never saw such caught the marks of a pen il upon it.

Rua? You never saw such caught the marks of a pen is upon a me. It hasn't varied over She carefully opened t and read:
This rus which once was mine tells me in the been cleaned once. Run?
It has watch once it am. You know I am any out the this watch.

This rus which once was mine tells me in whose house I am. I can not carefully the reporter was observed the reporter was observed the reporter was observed.

Here, The world knows it, and I do not carefully the reporter was observed.

Here, The world knows it and I can not reduce the reporter was observed.

liged to eave the car at this point and therefore it is lupped if to state. This explained all. Falling on her whether the hald-headed gentleman was duly con used of the su periority of the hook-ton man's im spices to his own "Henry" Ten years ago he loved the "Henry" Ten years ago be loved the same Mar's, and he won'd have made her his wife for she had promised to be his had he not taken to drink and be his had he not taken to drink and strawb'ry short-onke for descrit, but strawb'ry short-onke for descrit, but A half-hour later, and Aunt g-milling and finally forged the name of his employer, for which he was given yesterday morning with his wife and a home in a convict prison. When he live ch lives, and the family were not was wor hy of her love he gave her that be s rry she's so cross to temp ed to arrest the turglan - Chica jo

Flavored Cigars.

a ter, in his arms, the procession something. "Wacre is Tommy's Jumbo?" "Mest prople like a flavored eigar," wald an Indianapolis denge ist to a reporter was had ste-ped in to buy a weed. "Try one of these: I think you weed. "Try one of these: I think you will like it." The reporter took me of the brind recommended to him, lighted it and began to smoke.

"I have to put up considerable cigar flavor." continued the drug man, "and I suppose some people wouldn't find it so difficilit a thing to quit smoking if mighty kere ull bout crowdin's man.
When a pusson says dat he wants ter fight, yer's safe but when he tells; they must have it stated on want, ter fight, yer's safe; but when he tells; they must have it stated on want, ter fight, yer's safe; but when he tells; they must have it stated on want, ter fight, yer's safe; but when he tells; they must have it stated on want, ter fight, yer's safe; but when he tells; they must have it stated on want, ter fight, yer's safe; but when he tells; they would not write. The letters he designed and hard so that be required be found in the meaning the training of the terms of the helit.

A never field for Sportsmen.

A never field for sports is an an advantage of the want to make the inferral excursion. What is will be lurged off before a lart woman as a stated for sports is storm, and must complete the meantime it was reported here.

It was months before he was a report of the death of his wife. He recovered all birtyling the was for t rife suddenly discovered that she had sthey knew what the nopular flavors are made of. On second thought, though, "O. course—of course—prowed the and property among the Papuans. But as a thoroughly refreshing novelty we think the donkey-hunting, cow-staiking, and dog-shooting of the Galapagos s ands must take a front seat. Once appear a line it appears there were life.

A joyous surprise was, bowever, latter thank and property among the Papuans. But the donkey-hunting as the weeks and months rolled on, with no other think no other thinks of either good or life, she was at last forced to a man whose gaze was fixed on the was a fixed on the was a man whose gaze was fixed on the was a man whose gaze was fixed on the was a man whose gaze was fixed on the was a man whose gaze was fixed on the was a fixed was a fixed on the was a fixed was a fixed on the wa

what chains em. It's the op am, and too much they get in the habit of using it un opsionsly. Valerian taker, habitually and who can renders the hear's action more rapid, but feebler, ca ses hurried respiration, and may ocasion congestion of the kinews. It its use is long continued, shall I do? it may paralyze the spinal cord, so the books say. Its action on the tongue and throat is more prompt and apparent, frequently causing epithelium. As deeply their to op um, its internal effects are well wandered known. It would take an almanae to search, I enume ate all the diseases it occasions. naughty to the presidence contraction of the puells of Sudden the eyes, affects the digestive functions all his specby blunting the gastrie sensat on, check- | ch se at his "And won't five dollars bribe you?"
"It won't."
"The go ahead with your oration and death-tell! Make all the fuss you will Splatter round in the water as long as you possibly can, and fix your turn to the heart, and tagnates in the user in the liver and panelogy of the liver an

Fine Job Printing

-EXECUTED-

With Neatness and Dispatch.

SALE BILLS. ETTVELOPES. LETTER-HEADS,

BILL-HEADS. INVITATIONS. ETC. ETC.

CALL AND SEE US.

not go near that well I am very certain "Well," answered papa, hesitatingly; "and then, anyway, the cover is so heavy that I don't think the child could heavy that I don't think the child could possibly lift it."

So Tommy, through all the long, bright summer days, had come and gone at his own sweet will, and until to-day had never once thought of breaking his promise to dea." Annt Sally. But to day—"Well, she might 'a' given me nother piece of her old short-cake then—mean thing." said Tommy, as his busy little hands worked at the old well-cover. A push, a pull, a jerk, and the whole thing slipped off suidenly, and far more easily than papa had supposed possible, while Tommy stood on the edge peering down—oh! a long way down—into the stil durk water.

"Guess I could cutch a lift is hard if

Oh, Pannt Sally had seen him then!
Or papa.

"Don't upk I can quite reach; but me and make

"Don tunk I can quite reach; but me and my at put together could, jest as easy es man at all. Here, Jummy! He was such a pretty little fellow, and so full of fun! Whenever he found in the time-piece lay hidden, he resides the street colores.

Ten your watch is wrong, that say I show watch is wrong, that say I show watch is wrong, the show watch is wr Away down in what Tommy's father spoke of as the "Soat, Mealow Lot" There' there! Jummy darlin'. Now was a little brook. so shallow and so you're all right, and Tommy's so sorry, warm as it rippled over the stones that Come home now, Jumbo, and Aunt warm as it rippled over the stones that he could wad his all the morning looking for "nadpoles," and not catch could all. Here normally spent many happy hours, and he e he spent one perticular afternoon that I am going to tell you about. about. way? Jummy, dee, dee Jummy, won't it all began with me d'aner. Aunt you get up and come home with your

A half-hour later, and Aunt Sally, looking from the wind w of her pre ty shaded dining-room, sees a strange pro-cession coming up the hill from the South Meadow Lot. First there is Tommy, with someand spend all the afternoon in the South Lot, "'N see if Anat Sally don't thing lying over his shoulder-what can that be? Closely following him is Rover, whose grave face and big brown eyes seem thoroughly to undertand that something is am ss. Daisy walks anxsometh ng is am ss. Daisy walks anx-iously first on this side, then on that, now loitering behind, now running on en'led ktever and Daise, was were al-ways delighted to go anywhere with ther little master and taking Jumbo, who couldn't always be trusted to ran before, and always seeming to hunt for started.

The little brook ran cool and clear: thinks Aunt Sally, who is a little nearthe old elm-tree hung is branches so low I at Liey dipped their faces in the water; the crickets sang softly and sleepily, as they do on het July afterrighted; and then, rising hastily: "What can be the matter?"—the child sang sottly and is crying. And so he is, sobbing bitterly, and with his drivy little knuckles describing geometric tigu es on his face; while me what was possibly be that the dripping with water, thus marking the dripping with water, thus marking the t ink so, at any rate, and only said to trade

many a bright atterno a in the old South Musdow Lot after that, I can ls in the brost or assure you that never again did he go grass by the fence, yer sept. But this he dd not cease to mourn the loss of poor Jumbo, who came to his untimely end through the disobedience of the little master he loved so well .- Caristian Union.

An Awful Thought.

A young lady stepped into a certa'n drug store the other day to quiz the clars. She gave him this and that, and he soon became red in the fa.e.

and he soon became red in the late.

He was becoming irritated.

"If I keep on." she sa'd. sweetly:

"You'll get mad. won't you?"

"Yes, I will," he pett ship replied.

"I'd advise you not. Don't become more worked up than you are. It wondn't be safe, 's'e auswered.

"Why wouldn't it?"

Because if you become madder they put you in that drawer and sell you out to col r old shawls at ten cents a round. Thick to what a base use a handsome drug clerk might come if he didn't use care. And the lady left, ago when this was didn't use care." And the lady left, much to the relief of the muchly-worried clerk, who failed to "catch in it was found very on."-Carl Protect's Weakly.

st wanted to go and lot," paps ob ested old well; but Aunt -Hurbo, futher of the three Mexican No. John, you need milli naires w.o own the most valuable have great faith in estates in the City of Mexico, began life a tells me that he will as a mule-driver.